

The image shows a page from a cycling brochure, likely for the 'Bike' magazine. It features 17 numbered sections, each representing a different cycling route. Each section includes a small map of the route, a table with route statistics (such as distance, elevation, and time), and a block of text describing the route. The sections are color-coded: 7 (green), 9 (orange), 11 (blue), 13 (purple), 15 (pink), 17 (brown), 8 (dark red), 10 (red), 12 (green), 14 (red), and 16 (blue). On the right side, there is a 'Bike' logo and a small photograph of cyclists. At the bottom, there is a legend with various symbols and a website address: www.cobrasolst.com.
